POOPEE POETRY

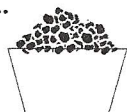

Swabbing the deck, that would be me.
 It's where your dogs go poop & pee.
 When weather is cold & snow is deep
 It seems they think the stairs are steep.
 Please let me in cry's at the door.
 Cleaning is what, you hired Debbie for.
 The yard is to far, so what the heck.
 Just know I will check the deck.

ALL ABOUT IT

I have been owner of Scoopy Doo's for 18 years. Been picking IT up & proud of this.. Being a business owner, I've learned a lot about IT over the years.

- (1) Just because you pick IT up does not mean you have to look like IT.
- (2) I hate the snow, because I have to skip IT. Then It piles up on me. That is when my aging body feels like IT, but I am not a quitter, I won't quit IT, till IT is done.
- (3) Your mind wonders when you pick IT up all day. I am constantly thinking IT up! Sadly if I don't write IT down, I can't remember IT.
- (4) In business IT matters. If your going to be successful, you best take care of IT. I am the happiest person I know, because IT is important to me. Let me take care of IT for you. I will gratefully help you join in my happiness.
- (5) With Scoopy Doo's my job is to pick IT up, but in being politically correct, I can't say IT out loud. So don't be offended! IT means multiple things, if you say IT accidently, I hope IT brings you some grins . I know that IT is just a word, but in my case IT is most likely a dog turd.
- (6) My family thinks, I have IT for brains because I love cleaning IT up!
- (7) In advertising,, I hope IT gets the attention I desire.
- (8) I entertain myself a lot, because if IT..

IT'S-BUSINESS

Whew! After the last two write ups, my family is right! At this moment, I am so brain dead, and under the gun to finish this up.. I guess I am slowing with age, but with age comes wisdom, so let me get to the point.

We are heading strong into,,, snow, and melts fast season,,, for Colorado. I am hoping for fast melts for sure anyway. As most of you know, I do listen to the weather reports and act within their forecasts. Better safe than sorry. I will always work ahead of schedule if snow is forecast. I am out there as quick as possible as the snow melts. Please remember, I do my best, to be fair to everyone, and because double doody hurts me much more than you can imagine. (I passionately hate disruption,) I strive to stay on schedule.

ATTENTION:

Spring time nears. Our sprinklers will be turned on before we know it. So I am sending out my beg and plead notice that all sprinklers be set to complete their last cycle by 6 a.m. It would be even more wonderful if you added to that, by not even running them on your scheduled day of service. Wow that would be a dream come true for me, dry yards all summer long.

Thank you all so much for allowing me to be my early bird self. Start time is always the break of dawn or 6 a.m. summer time. Yes I am crazy, crazy about taking care of business first thing.. Don't forget the heart worm medication, update shots & that city pet license.

Email, I need your email address & updated phone numbers .
