MINI-PAWS

Everyone knows I got a little twang in my voice, so coming up with these news letters when ya gotta twang and come from the Ozark Mountains is just to easy some times. I remember my momma sayin she was going thru minipaws. Now, I knew what squirrel legs & bear claws were. Delicious! but I never heard of minipaws. Then she tells me minipaws is when you get older & wanna claw some ones eyes out for no good reason. Poor Pa! No wonder them men wear glasses when they get older. Its to protect their eyes from minipaws!..Now that I am laughing, let me share the gossip. I will be takin a mini pause because my minipaws is not going so well. A hysterectomy! Not scheduled yet but I would like to shoot for the 1st part of November. I guess I will be out for 2 weeks then will still be having a side kick, cuz the doc said, I ain't lifting no heavy buckets. I know with the help of family, I didn't even have to mention this because your service will not be effected. But everyone knows, I can't keep quite bout nothin. This notice is for those that do see me out there in their yard. Just don't like surprising no one. Just keeping you all informed. Now, will you ever be able to look at a man with glasses & not wonder if his wife is in.... minipaws!

GIVING THANKS

I want everyone to know how thankful I am for your business! Those Thank You's on your invoice, I mean them from the bottom of my heart. I hope you enjoy my service as much as I appreciate your business. Even the stamps on your envelope are given thought.

POOPERMAN P

With the world in chaos there is one super hero still fighting grime. Faster than a speeding bullet, able to leap four foot fences in a single bound. Look out in the yard, it's a turd, it's a blade, it's Pooperman! Lets go with Pooperman for a day of grime fighting.

Rising early for my day of grime fighting, I suit up & head out to the first scene of the grime, as usual I clean up the grime scene & all seems normal. With no time to visit I pass Lois Lane in route to the next grime scene. I am right on the heels of the Piddler when something hits me from behind. I look up & it's falling from the sky, I look around, I find myself surrounded. Surrounded by Kraptahide! Kraptahide is from the planted treenormous, the only thing that weakens my ability to fight grime. Oh the agony of it all! The Piddler howls with delight as kraptahide covers up his grime. Confused but not giving up, I muster up all my super abilities from years of grime fighting. The Piddler yelps out a riddle. What blows in the breeze? makes most humans sneeze? Kids pile in heaves up to their knees? It is definitely one of Pooperman peeves? Oh can anybody help me, the kraptahide has slowed my thinking. Thank goodness! It's Batman & his side kick Droppin Turd. (Most people just know them as Batman & Droppin.) Can you help me solve this grime Batman & Droppin Turd? I can't let the Piddler get away with this grime! Knowing Kraptahide only hits earth once a year, Droppin bounces around repeating the riddle. Ahh hah! breeze, sneeze, heaves, knees & peeves! I know the answer it has to be Leaves! I love you Droppin Turd, you are Bat-mans best friend

Ok everybody it is that time of year. Time for your annual reminder to please clean your yards before winter really sets in. It will be hard enough battling the snow this winter. Tall grass & leaves make it nearly impossible to do a good job. Help Pooperman be a good grime fighter.

The only News Letter with little information and a lot of crap! Not intended to be offensive. Hope you found it slightly entertaining.
